Season Slowly Winding Down

A long January continues for the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department adult volleyball leagues. With five playing dates this month, the most in a few years, teams will have a short February to make any ground they need in the divisional race.

Play this past week saw our divisional leaders continue their fine play, while the jockeying for the last playoff spots in each division continue to heat up.

This weeks spotlight teams are Jeff Payne's Frank's who lead our Men's Tuesday Night League and from our Ladies "A", Jessica Kremer's Green Buffalo Pub who both have nice divisional leads in their respective divisions.

Men's League

Tuesday Night League: Division leader Frank's goes two and one verses Sal's to match the lead in the division. Good Tymes South-Besch sweeps The Attack to pull behind Frank's a single game in the loss column. Green Buffalo Pub-Batt takes two of three from Good Tymes South-Zeigler to put themselves solidly in third in the division.

Wednesday Night "A" League: Team Steinel takes three from Green Buffalo Pub-Klock as they inch closer to chinch the division very soon. Elma Towne Grill is at .500 after a two to one win ove the Free Agents.

Wednesday Night "B" League: Green Buffalo Pub-Nuwer takes two of three from the division leading Chucksters to pull within a game of them. The Bumpin Uglies sweep Green Buffalo Pub-Kicak to open up a little ground between themselves and Green Buffalo Pub in fourth place.
